

From the Fernway Library

Dear Parents/Guardians:

Today was an exciting day for kindergarten students: your child chose a book to borrow from the Fernway Library!

Your child's library day is Friday. The students are allowed to borrow one book for one week. Your child should always return his/her book to school on Friday.

We do not charge fines for overdue books, but your child will not be able to take home a new book until the previous book is returned.

We hope that you will take time to read with your child every day. Ask questions about the story and pictures. Make predictions about what might happen in the story, draw connections with the world around us, and most importantly, enjoy reading together.

Our school library mission is to help every student develop a love of reading, to become a skilled user of ideas and information, and to explore the world through print and electronic media. We look forward to a great year of exploration with your child in the library!

Sincerely,

Mr. Robert Kaminski
